

Discount Market Rent Properties Available at

One West Point

What is Discount Market Rent (DMR)?

Discount Market Rent (DMR) is affordable housing available to eligible households, with rent discounted at up to 30% of the open market rate.

All properties are built to the same high-specification as the properties advertised on the open market.

Full access to onsite amenities, including gym, residents' lounge and cinema room. Plus on-site concierge and professional management team (AWOL- A Way of LiFE).

Who is eligible?

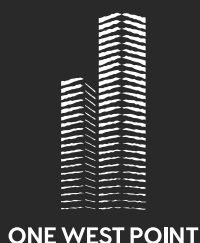

To be eligible to rent a DMR property, a household needs to meet the following criteria:

- A total annual household income of less than £90,000pa*
- Priority given to key workers
- Priority given to those already living or working in Ealing

DMR units are subject to annual rent reviews to check if household income has gone above the £90,000 threshold.*

AWOL – A Way of Living

AWOL – A WAY OF Living is about providing a 5* lifestyle without the high costs traditionally involved. Exceptional customer service and great value for money lie at the heart of this concept and from day one our mission has been to create the most desirable places to live in London. We believe your home is more than just the four walls where you go to bed each night and AWOL represents exactly that for all our residents.
